

CONVALESCENT BLOOD PLASMA

Kern health officials renew call for donations to ease burden on hospitals

BY GARDNER

Real County officials are calling again for donations of convalescent plasma to ease the burden on hospitals...

...has shown positive results in scientific studies regarding the use of the plasma...

Health Services Department on Thursday morning, only about 11 people had visited...

something that can smooth the way for the distribution of relief...

individuals will need to donate a portion of a positive test...

McKinley students work in their garden in the McKinley Elementary School garden...

Fruits, veggies of their labor

Whether there's extreme heat, shine or no kids on campus, McKinley Elementary staff keeps its garden growing...

The school received lots of help to build and maintain the organic garden...

...the garden is a great way to get kids involved in their school...

...the garden is a great way to get kids involved in their school...

LAW ENFORCEMENT

MADD notes contributions in fight against drunken driving

BY GARDNER

Northridge Police Officer Debbie Gentry recently received a number of letters from area law enforcement...

MADD National President John Wiley spoke at the graduation ceremony...

The ceremony was held at the local MADD chapter...

...the ceremony was held at the local MADD chapter...

Rep. John Lewis at a public hearing.

A final farewell to the congressman and civil rights icon...

PREP BASKETBALL

East girls, BCHS boys cap magical seasons with championship rings...

...the teams were crowned champions...

Lice become one more head-scratcher during pandemic

BY KIM O'NEIL

Lice will be everywhere throughout the summer months, health officials say...

Lisa Clark of American and the state is a no-hesitation...

...the state is a no-hesitation...

...the state is a no-hesitation...

...the state is a no-hesitation...

CONTACT US: Subscriber service: 805-251-6685...

OUTSIDE TODAY: 103 69...

Table with columns for newspaper sections and page numbers: Inside Your Californian, 40-43

LOCAL

For a treat, Anne Sanchez feeds the chickens at the McKean Elementary School of chickens in her garden.

GARDEN

Get ready for fall

The weather is beginning to change. Gardeners in the area should be aware that the weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

McKean feeds weeds from the former member with Al Woods and his family hands in the organic garden.

Parsley is part of the organic garden.

MADD

Get ready for fall

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

Police officers from the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office are shown in front of the new Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office building.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

Kern health dept. reports more than 1,000 new cases, 4 more deaths

The Kern County Public Health Department reported four new COVID-19 cases on Friday, July 31, 2020. The total number of cases in Kern County is now 15,421. The health department reported that four more people have died from COVID-19, bringing the total number of deaths to 47.

COVID-19 PANDEMIC

The health department reported that four more people have died from COVID-19, bringing the total number of deaths to 47. The health department also reported that four new cases were identified on Friday.

PLASMA

Contract from FPGAL

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

LICE

Contract from FPGAL

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.

Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office officers are shown in front of the new Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office building.

The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up. The weather is changing and the garden season is winding up.